7. ADDITIONAL REPORTS

(i) Policy Review Timeline

Noted

(ii) Request for General Extension for Royal Wedding

Following consideration of a report by the Depute Clerk asking if the Board would extend licensing hours on the occasion of the marriage of HRH Prince Harry on Saturday 19 May, 2018, dated 29 January, 2018, copies of which had been circulated in advance, the Board determined not to grant a general extension of licensing hours but to determine applications for occasional extensions on a case by case basis. The Board indicated they would favour extended opening during the day but not later in the evening.

(iii) Determination of Localities for Review of Overprovision Policy

Following consideration of a report by the Depute Clerk asking the Board to determine localities for the purpose of renewing their overprovision policy, dated 20 February, 2018, copies of which had been circulated in advance, the Board agreed that the localities should be the local ward areas within the Board area with focus on the main settlements in North Aberdeenshire.

(iv) Report on Re-establishment of Licensing Board Site Visit Sub-Committee

Following consideration of a report by the Depute Clerk, setting out options for site visits, dated 20 February, 2018, copies of which had been circulated to Members in advance, the Board agreed option (a) – as follows:-

The Board confirmed the decision it took in June, 2017 which is:-

- (a) No Site Visit Sub-Committee be appointed.
- (b) The Board arrange site visits for all Board Members where circumstances meant a visit take place.
- (c) The Convenor and Depute Clerk inspect premises that are the subject of an application for confirmation of provisional premises licence.

Layout plans of premises will be available to Board Members on request prior to the start of each Board meeting.
